BUSINESS STYLE LUXURY TRAVEL

HARBOR, the German quarterly luxury lifestyle magazine covers coaching, business, luxury, lifestyle, travel, beauty and medicine, aimed at professionally successful and affluent readers who enjoy a luxury lifestyle. HARBOR filters the best addresses, topics and items and in each issue introduces the most interesting of them.

Advantage for the featured institutions or labels: HARBOR can be utilized by these institutions for their own customer-marketing in the most efficient way. The combination of reputable high-class coaching and business themes and exclusive luxury or travel guarantees high interest with our readers. The singularity of the concept is additionally underlined by the extraordinary appearance.

An all-engrossing concept, encompassing all the valuable areas of life, suggests the rewards in life on the highest level. True luxury is celebrated, new goals and values are pointed out.

HARBOR

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

1. Area of application

These terms and conditions apply to all advertisement orders given to HARBOR Magazin regarding the dissemination of a publication issued by HARBOR Magazin. Editorial ads, PR articles and supplements are also regarded as advertisements in this context. Should any individual terms be applicable only to commercial activities, i.e. with respect to those customers who are merchants, legal entities under public law or special assets under public law, this will be indicated in the following. It is in every case the customer order rendered in the form accepted by HARBOR Magazin (hereinafter referred to as the „Contract“) which is of defining importance regarding the content and extent of the services to be performed by HARBOR Magazin and the respective remuneration payable. Any conditions applied by the customer are hereby contradicted. Such conditions shall only acquire applicability if they have been expressly accepted by HARBOR Magazin. In commercial business, any arrangements deviating from or amending the contract shall only be applicable if they are set in writing or if such requirement of the written form has been previously declared in writing to be unnecessary.

2. Services performed

An obligation for HARBOR Magazin to perform a service only exists once an advertisement order has been expressly confirmed by HARBOR Magazin. Statements made in information and publicity materials by HARBOR Magazin, in particular statements regarding the size of circulation of the magazine published by HARBOR Magazin shall only form part of the contract if expressly stated in the contract. Date deadlines are only binding if expressly confirmed by HARBOR Magazin.

The place of fulfilment for the obligation to perform resting on HARBOR Magazin is Grünwald.

HARBOR Magazin reserves the right to reject advertisements in accordance with uniform, factually justified factors if these – whether with regard to content or form – constitute a violation of legal regulations, government orders or public morals, or if it can not be reasonably expected that HARBOR Magazin publish the advertisement, unless HARBOR Magazin has expressly committed itself to publishing the advertisement in the knowledge of its content and form. This also applies accordingly to supplements, even if these contain third party advertisements or if they give the impression of being part of the publication. The customer shall only receive proofs, printing documents, samples or sample copies of the advertisement if this is expressly agreed in the contract. Advertisements can only be reproduced in certain issues or editions or in certain locations within the magazine if this has been expressly agreed in the contract.

3. Prices

In return for the performance of the arranged services, the customer undertakes to render payment of the price as stated in the contract. The correction of writing errors or obvious calculation mistakes is reserved. If no price is stated in the contract, the price given in the advertisement price list valid upon acceptance of the order shall be deemed to have been agreed. HARBOR Magazin reserves the right to amend prices for orders already received, however this shall only apply if and to the extent that the respective advertisements are to be printed more than four months subsequent to the conclusion of the contract. Outlays, e.g. the cost of producing or returning printing manuscripts or of forwarding to the customer replies to box number advertisements will be charged separately in accordance with the price list. The prices stated in the contract and in the price list are exclusive of value added tax. The discounts for multiple insertions stated in the price list shall only apply when the insertions referred to in the contract are to be made within a year, unless otherwise provided for in the contract. The place of fulfilment for the customer's payment obligation is Grünwald. All invoice payments are due within the deadline stated in the price list unless a different payment deadline has been agreed in the contract. In the event of payment arrears, the customer is obliged to pay interest on arrears at a rate of 8 % p.a. above the respective bank rate set by the Deutsche Bundesbank. The assertion of further damages due to arrears is reserved.

4. Changes to and cancellation of contract

The cancellation of an advertisement order by the customer is permissible. In such an event, HARBOR Magazin will, if possible, endeavour to replace said advertisement with a different advertisement or an article, however, irrespective of this, it shall still be entitled to demand payment of the arranged remuneration accordingly under application of § Business Conditions 649 BGB (German Civil Code). This is payable immediately. The right of both parties to cancel the contract on important grounds remains unaffected. If the customer desires to make amendments to the contract, in particular if he should wish to suspend the advertisement order, HARBOR Magazin will endeavour to comply with this wish. Should this not be possible, the contract shall be deemed to have been cancelled unless the customer has expressly given deviating instructions. Any costs incurred as a result of the amendment shall be charged to the customer over and above the agreed price.

5. Warranty and liability of HARBOR Magazin

HARBOR Magazin warrants that the advertisements shall conform with the contractual agreements made with the customer regarding the standard printing quality for the selected printed object. Should this not be the case, the customer shall be entitled either to demand a reduction in the agreed price or the insertion of a free additional advertisement of standard quality, as he may choose, however this may only be to the extent that the purpose of the advertisement was impaired. The right of the customer to cancel the contract in the event that the additional advertisement is also faulty or does not appear within a reasonable period of time, is unaffected. Advertisements with obvious defects shall be deemed to have been accepted if no communication to the contrary is received by HARBOR Magazin within four weeks of their publication.

A claim for a reduction in remuneration is excluded if HARBOR Magazin has informed the customer of the reduction in circulation in sufficient time before publication to allow the latter to cancel the contract. A contractual or noncontractual obligation to give compensation for damage on the part of HARBOR Magazin, its employees and vicarious agents shall only exist if said damage is attributable to gross negligence or intent. The liability of HARBOR Magazin is limited to the capital disadvantage that HARBOR Magazin should have predicted upon conclusion of the contract as a possible consequence of contractual violation, unless the damage is attributable to gross negligence on the part of a body or senior executive at HARBOR Magazin or to intent. Warranty or damage compensation claims against HARBOR Magazin, with the exception of damage compensation claims due to unpermitted acts shall expire by limitation in accordance with the legal regulations, however after a period of two years at the latest following the performance of the service to which the claim refers.

6. Liability of the customer

In the event that the customer does not perform his service or does this after a delay, in particular if he does not comply with the agreed deadlines for providing his texts and printing manuscripts, HARBOR

Magazin shall, after having set an appropriate subsequent deadline, as far as this is possible, be released from its obligation to perform and shall be entitled to demand remuneration under according application of § 646, subsection 1 BGB (German Civil Code). This shall be payable immediately. The customer shall be liable for the content of the advertisement; in this regard the customer shall indemnify HARBOR Magazin against any claims with respect to third parties.

7. Final provisions

All declarations which are to be furnished in accordance with the contract or these conditions are only effective in writing. The customer shall only be entitled to transfer rights arising out of a contract with the prior consent of HARBOR Magazin – with the exception of payment claims. This consent can only be refused should important grounds exist. Settling off against claims with respect to HARBOR Magazin is excluded if these have not been legally established or are legally disputed. The exercising of a right of retention, including the commercial right of retention, is only admissible if based on the same contractual relationship.

Should one or several terms of the contract or of these conditions be or become ineffective or impossible to implement, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining terms.

The contractual relationships between the parties are subject to German law. For all disputes arising out of or in the context of the contract or these conditions, the courts in Grünwald/Munich shall be exclusively responsible, as long as (a) the customer is a general merchant, a legal entity under public law or a special asset under public law or (b) if the place of residence or normal abode of the customer at the time of institution of legal proceedings is either not within this country or is not known.
